Partimah Dadleh was born in Marree on the 28th March, 1908 to Moosha Baluch and Adelaide Moosha.

Known to us as Pa or Party.

Partimah was raised in Marree in a family of six children, Zainabi (the last surviving member), Nazebebe (Etty), Lal (Lolla), Ahmed (Mitty) and Noorie.

In September 1933 she married Dur Mahomed Dadleh (Chas). Together they had eight children, John, Billy, Brian, Tricia, Max, Dorothy, Ron and Keith. The eldest children were born at home and the younger children were born in the Marree Hospital. The youngest of the family, Keith, was born in the Port Augusta Hospital, this was to be her first trip out of Marree to Port Augusta.

Chas and Partimah celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary during the festivities of the Marree Centenary in September, 1983.

After Chas passed away Partimah continued to live at home in Marree with Max. Due to ill health Pa had a few stays in the Port Augusta Hospital. Pa then set up home with John and Beverley whom have taken great care of her.

She leaves behind four generations of families.
