In 1989 David Wingfield (wingy) met Bernadette Lawrie-Lennon and they became friends and then partners and later were blessed with a beautiful daughter Kayla, followed by two handsome sons David jr (chippy) and Terrence (tazza).

David (wingy) and Bernadette lived most of their lives in Port Augusta and Ceduna where Bernadette later passed on, leaving her children with her mother Verna Lawrie.

And David (wingy) moved back to Port Augusta to be with his mother Hazel and father David Wingfield sr. The most happy moment for David (wingy) was when he got the good news that he became a grandfather, he was very overwhelmed on his first grandchild, that he couldn't wait to see his grandson David, who is now the number 7 David in the Wingfield, Hart, Lennon, Lawrie Family. David (wingy) was also most proud when Bernadette's son Beaver Lennon jr went to Brisbane in 2008, where Beaver was short-listed on the Telstra awards and they both met Queensland Premier named Anna Bligh for the first time.
